

The so called modern education, with all its defects, however, does others so much more good than it does the Negro because it has been worked out in conformity to the needs of those who have enslaved and oppressed weaker peoples.

CARTER G. WOODSON

Racial and denominational schools impart to the membership of their communities something which the general educational institution is wholly unable to inculcate.

KELLY MILLER

It is the fool whose own tomatoes are sold to him.

AKAN PROVERB

At the bottom of education, at the bottom of politics, even at the bottom of religion, there must be for our race economic independence.

BOOKER T. WASHINGTON

We must not only be able to black boots, but to make them.

FREDERICK DOUGLASS

A man's bread and butter is only insured when he works for it.
